As part of their commitment to the professional development of their staff, Phillips Solicitors is delighted to announce three recent promotions and three exam successes within their practice:

Promotions

Three solicitors have been promoted: Hayley Eachus, Solicitor and Mediator in the family team is promoted to Senior Associate Solicitor and two others are also promoted: Rob Parker now becomes Associate Solicitor and Collaborative Lawyer in the family team and Ben Holden becomes Associate Solicitor in the Wills and Probate team.

Exam successes

Three experienced members in our conveyancing team have recently qualified as Chartered Legal Executives, adding considerable expertise to a highly qualified team.

Howard Gardener, director, comments: 'Our most important resource is our people and Phillips regards professional development as critical to delivering the best service to our clients and the successful growth of our firm. These promotions and achievements reflect Phillips' continued investment across our practice areas and they also reflect our primary strategy of organic growth.'
