As part of their commitment to growth, Phillips Solicitors are delighted to announce three new appointments. Phillips, regarded as one of Basingstoke's leading firms of solicitors, are investing in a successful future by expanding their teams of solicitors.

Kelly-Jean Lees, solicitor specialising in employment law, has joined Gill Brown's employment law team, adding considerable weight to the commercial arm of Phillips and its business clients.

Melanie Roberts, solicitor specialising in residential and commercial property, strengthens Alex Preshaw's residential property team at a critical time, with the introduction of Home Information Packs.

Rob Parker, recently qualified solicitor, joins Howard Gardener in the disputes and family law team.

Howard Gardener, senior partner, says "Our most important resource is our people and in order to deliver the very best service to our clients we are investing in new and highly professional people. I am confident that they will enhance the future expansion of our services to our private and business clients."
