All Point Packaging Ltd has been acquired by Macfarlane Group PLC for approximately £4.8m as part of Macfarlane Group's strategy to develop its Packaging Distribution businesses.

Phillips acted as solicitors to the selling shareholders of Allpoint Packaging Ltd, led by partners Jonathan Pender and Alex Preshaw, advising on all aspects of the transaction. Phillips, short listed for the Law Society's Excellence Awards 2008, dealt with the sale of the assets of the parent company, All Point Packaging (Group) Ltd, employment and property issues and post-completion asset sale. Alex Preshaw commented: 'Phillips has ensured that Allpoint and their shareholders have achieved their goals of realising value from this transaction and ensuring the continued success of the business they've built, despite this seriously fluctuating market'
