As part of Phillips Solicitors' plans to invest in a successful future, we are delighted to announce the appointment of a new solicitor, Ben Holden, who joins the Wills and Probate Team headed up by Sheila Glyn-Owen. Like Sheila, Ben is also a Trust and Estate Practitioner (TEP) and is a welcome addition to Sheila's team at a critical time of national economic recovery.

Ben's priority is in helping clients to put their affairs in order and his experience will be invaluable to Phillips' clients – he specialises in wills, probate, lasting powers of attorney, inheritance tax planning and elderly client matters.

Sheila Glyn-Owen comments: 'I am delighted to welcome Ben to join my team, his experience in handling the personal affairs of clients of all ages will be vitally important. Our priority is to deliver the very best service to our clients and I am confident that our clients will be in safe, professional hands with Ben.'
