Phillips Solicitors has launched its new website with improved information for its clients. Says Howard Gardener, senior partner: 'At Phillips we have always taken client care very seriously, talking and listening to our clients and taking their views on board. Our clients, as well as people looking for a solicitor, want to be able to see clearly what we do, find out who we are and how we work.'

We are a successful legal firm in Basingstoke with recognition from the Law Society, having been shortlisted for their Excellence Awards last year. We are continually innovating and improving our services and our new website is a natural part of this development.

We are in a competitive market and our clients rightly expect a good professional service. At Phillips we know that our services are not only the very best available but also that we listen to our clients, continuously refining our services to meet their needs now and in the future.

The new website, www.phillips-law.co.uk, is user-friendly and allows clients to see clearly each of the services offered, says Howard. It has a fresh 'look and feel' and new sections that include quick guides and legal briefs as well as other valuable information that clients need when selecting a solicitor or coming to a first meeting.'

'Our clients want to be able to see clearly what we do, find out who we are and how we work'
